

Entertainment on the Disney Wish

Disney is known for delivering stellar entertainment. Disney on Broadway has become a pinnacle of the New York Theatre scene. But, did you know you can also watch similar Broadway-caliber shows during your cruise?

Many of the shows are exclusive to certain ships, so if you want to experience all of Disney's unique onboard shows, you have to sail on all of the ships!

There are two live productions each evening. So, if you have early dining you will want to catch the second show and vice versa.

There are currently three Broadway shows exclusively available onboard the Wish:

DISNEY SEAS ADVENTURE

This new adventure features the lovable Goofy as he takes over the ship's helm on an epic journey to discover his own inner captain.

You're invited to follow along as he encounters a bevy of bold, brave, and brilliant friends who encourage him never to give up and to lead with his heart through stirring renditions of iconic Disney songs featuring Tiana, Crush the Turtle, Elsa, Moana and Merida.

When Goofy loses his way and self-doubt begins to take hold once again, he finds the courage to "Go the Distance" with the help of Hercules and a host of other Disney heroes. Watch as Goofy learns valuable life lessons through story and song and then wraps up the show with an unforgettable sendoff!

DISNEY'S THE LITTLE MERMAID

Join in on this under the sea adventure, with this on-stage adaptation of the beloved classic, Little Mermaid, as Ariel embarks on her quest for independence, love and her own identity in the world up above.

This impressive retelling has been reimagined to include new and exciting surprises. The show opens with a group of modern day storytellers finding an enchanted treasure chest. As they explore the whozits and whatzits hidden within, the story of The Little Mermaid comes to life, featuring an innovative script, state of the art puppetry, and gorgeous costumes made from ocean-recycled fabrics, this performance is sure to delight and amaze the whole family.

ALADDIN, A MUSICAL SPECTACULAR

From the big screen to the live stage, this comedic musical performance retains all the fun you remember from the film while adding its own modern frivolity.

This mythical Arabian story of boy meets girl raises the bar with special effects and advanced technology, making you feel like you are a part of the story. You will hear all the songs you love from the film, plus a brand new Alan Menken song for this production: "To Be Free."

Don't miss this positively spellbinding feast for the eyes—and ears—Broadway-style production to find out!

You can choose to see one or see them all! But these shows are sure to enthrall and amuse the whole family!
