

Obtaining a Virtual Queue for Guardians of the Galaxy

Obtaining a virtual queue for Guardians of the Galaxy Cosmic Rewind is at the top of everyone's list when visiting EPCOT. It is the only complimentary way to access this attraction, and Disney has implemented the "boarding group", basically a virtual queue, to manage guests who would like to experience this very popular attraction.

The process for this is the same as it was previously for Rise of the Resistance and Remy's Ratatouille Adventure. Guests CANNOT ride Guardians without a boarding pass or without having purchased Individual Lightning Lane Access via Disney Genie +. Guardians does not have a standby queue.

I have put together a few tips, as well as a fairly successful procedure for getting a boarding group.

Guests must have valid park admission and a Park Pass Reservation to book a Boarding Pass.

There are 2 daily opportunities to join the virtual queue. Disney opens Boarding Groups at 7AM and 1PM EST.

For the 7AM Virtual Queue Distribution, guests do NOT need to be inside the theme park, but you MUST have a Disney Park Pass Reservation booked for EPCOT. Guests can obtain a boarding pass from their Disney resort room, or anywhere on Disney property.

For the 1PM Virtual Queue Distribution, guests MUST be inside the theme park.

- If possible, make sure everyone in your party has the My Disney Experience app downloaded on their device and are logged in. You can share logins across devices. It is MUCH easier if everyone just accesses the app under the same login.
- 30 minutes before your window opens, check the internet speed on all your devices. There are many free sites that allow you to check your internet speed. Check with WiFi and without, and use the fastest device.
- 5 minutes before your window opens, pull up a world clock on another device.
- 3 minutes before your window opens, log into the My Disney Experience app, and start refreshing {pulling the screen down and releasing}.
- Continue to keep an eye on the world clock. 2-3 seconds BEFORE the virtual queue opens, click "Join".
- Do not hesitate at all as you are joining. The system will automatically add your entire party.

If you are unable to join the 7AM group, try the same steps again at 1PM, or purchase an Individual Lightning Lane for this attraction to assure you are able to ride later in the day.
