

Overview of the Disney Magic

As the original Disney Cruise Line vessel, the Disney Magic retains its charm while embracing a collection of modernizations and upgrades to feel brand new.

Disney delivers the same kind of magic they're so well known for on each of their enchanting cruise ships, but I want to share with you some of the details that make the Magic ship truly special and unique.

In true Disney style, there is fun and excitement in store for all ages and preferences.

Onboard Entertainment

Three Broadway-style shows are performed on the Disney Magic: "Twice Charmed," a twist on the Cinderella story; "Disney Dreams – An Enchanted Classic," an original show with cameos by characters like Peter Pan and Aladdin; and "Tangled: The Musical," featuring stunning sets and beloved songs from the film.

In addition to nightly live music, magic shows, comedy performances at Fathoms, and karaoke, families can take in Marvel, Pixar, Disney, and "Star Wars" films currently in movie theaters at the full-size Buena Vista Theatre. On the outdoor upper decks, the Wide World of Sports offers basketball and ping pong, a selection of pools and hot tubs, and the famed AquaDunk waterslide, with an incredible 3-story drop.

Exclusively For Kids

Whisk down a Slinky Dog slide in the "Toy Story"-themed play area, join the Lion Guard, or learn hero-worthy lessons from Thor within a MARVEL Super Hero Academy – it's all part of Disney's Oceaneer Club, open to children ages 3 through 12. There are even more exciting Disney experiences throughout Disney's Oceaneer Lab, Vibe teen club, and Edge tween club, all included with Disney Cruise ship sailings. ("It's a small world" nursery, which charges a nominal hourly rate, is also available for younger children.)

Disney Dining

Guests on the Disney Magic cruise ship will rotate between three restaurants nightly. You can look forward to a themed night of lively music, revelry from some Snuggly Duckling denizens, and an appearance by Rapunzel and Flynn Rider within a lantern-lined ballroom. Surrounded by mementos from Disney and Pixar animated films that "come to life" throughout dinner, you'll be swept away by the elegance of "Beauty and the Beast" and other favorites.

Casual meals can be had at all-day buffet Cabanas or ordered via 24-hour room service on board the Disney Magic. Otherwise, stop by Duck-In Diner for hot dogs, chicken fingers, or a shawarma sandwich, and enjoy a quick lunch at Pinocchio's Pizzeria or something healthier from Daisy's De-Lites on the upper Disney cruise ship decks.

As you can see, you have so much to look forward to on your Disney Magic Cruise.
