

Universal Orlando Park Policies

As you are approaching your trip to Universal, I wanted to walk you through the procedure for entering the park, as well as some of the Universal policies.

Keep in mind that these can change at any time, and if I do see any changes, I will certainly let you know!

Guests of Universal Orlando Resort go through security and bag check before arriving at Citywalk . Citywalk is the main hub of park entry, and from there, guests can choose to enter Universal Studios or Islands of Adventure.

*The large majority of the Universal attractions do not allow guests to carry on a park bag, due to the restraint systems of the attractions. There are complimentary lockers available near these attractions. I highly suggest taking in a small, cross body bag or drawstring bag ~ not a large backpack. The complimentary lockers are rather small. If you need one to house a larger bag, you will need to pay to rent one.

Please make sure everyone in your party 18 and older has their photo ID with them at all times. Randomly, but often, the Universal Team Members will ask guests to show their ID when scanning into the parks.

Universal does allow outside food and drinks, but there are some restrictions. See below:
